

The Mission Continues

From Pastor Bob

Dear friends and supporters, it has been more than 2 years since missionaries from HCM have been able to visit Haiti. We miss having our brothers and sisters come to visit our churches and communities. While our concerns for security of anyone visiting still remain the same, we have continued to see God's hands in our community and in the ministry. He provides protection and cares for our Haitian pastors and other American missionaries in Cap Haitien. We trust God's timing and pray for the day when we can welcome you back into our country. Your continued prayers and encouragement are so important to our ministry. We thank you for your support from wherever you are.

In September we shared an update about our church in Difou and the desire to expand the outreach of the church. Today, our church in Difou keeps shining in a remote area that heavily practices voodoo. Pastors Phida and Nosben have started an educational program to reach some kids' hearts in this poor community. This couple has designed a program where kids will learn something for their lives as well as increase their faith in God. This is a huge blessing to have pastors Phida and Nosben in the Ministry. They care deeply for their community and desire for everyone to know about Jesus. Our partnership with Midwest Food Bank offers us a food program for a group of 50 kids ages 0-5. These kids will be fed every day. Praise God! As many of you know, having a daily meal is a big deal for our community. We believe that an empty stomach has no ears, and by providing this meal it allows us to spread the message of Jesus. This support will encourage Pastors Phida and Nosben in their burning desire to serve this community.

Please, pray for:

- The city of Port au Prince. For the kidnapping to stop.
- For the church at Difou to be built for Nosben and Phida.
- For the HCM board – wisdom.
- For the supporters to be faithful to their engagement.
