School is back in session

Thank you to Pastor Bob for providing this article.

A new school year finally begins. Praise God!

The overwhelming feeling on our campus since the first week of January has been one of joy to be back at school. As you know, the school year was originally supposed to begin in September of last year. Due to gang violence, roadblocks and fuel shortages in the capital and other cities, many schools have been delayed for four months. This includes our school on the Pillatre campus.

While schools were closed, it was very hard for parents to keep their children at home and feed them every day. The reopening of schools brings joy to both parents and kids. The joy of going back to school can be described: learning and playing together, seeing their friends, and receiving a meal. Parents and kids have said the best part of returning to school is seeing that our dreams have not been lost. One of our main areas of focus with HCM is to educate the next generation of Haitians. It has been difficult to not see all the kids coming each day to learn, socialize, and get a meal.

I know many of you would like to see your kids and visit Haiti, but that is not currently possible. Please keep praying to our God that the circumstances will improve and allow people to visit us once again.

Please join us in praying for our principals, teachers, employees, and staff who are working so hard to lift up the next generation of Haitians!

“Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. It does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged. It does not rejoice about injustice but rejoices whenever the truth wins out. Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance.
