Soccer champions

Thank you to Willeme for providing this article.

Our school recently participated in two inter-school soccer tournaments. The first one took place on our Pillatre campus, and our team claimed the championship title! The other tournament took place at Acul du Nord where our team was the vice champion (second place). The team demonstrated outstanding talent, strategic play, and unwavering determination in every match. In the thrilling final at Pillatre, they outplayed their opponents with two goals in the closing minutes, securing a memorable victory. This triumph reflects their hard work, perseverance, and exceptional teamwork, bringing great pride and excitement to our Pillatre school and HCM staff.

Competing for the championship shows our school is at the top among all the schools in the community of Acul du Nord. Because of the student sponsorship provided via HCM, we have more opportunities, and our students are really strong. The Tender Mercies food gives the students the energy they need to compete at a high level. Their positive energy is contagious, motivating every player to strive for excellence and never give up, regardless of the challenges faced. They also have regular check-ups from the clinic for free. The Inter-School Championship brings unity in our community, contributes to self-discipline, and to the mental and physical development of our youth. We are proud of HCM.
